

SHARON M. GUTHRIE,
Plaintiff,
v.
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Defendant.

Before the Court is the parties' joint motion to amend the scheduling order to extend the current expert disclosure, fact and expert discovery, and dispositive motions deadlines due to Plaintiff's expected medical treatment [Doc. 23]. The parties do not seek to continue the trial date.

A scheduling order “may be modified only for good cause and with the judge’s consent.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4). For good cause shown and because the parties agree, the joint motion [Doc. 23] is GRANTED and the current Scheduling Order [Doc. 19] is amended only as follows:

Case 1:22-cv-00162-DCLC-SKL Document 24 Filed 09/28/23 Page 1 of 2 PageID #: 65

All other deadlines and requirements set forth in the Scheduling Order [Doc. 19] SHALL remain in effect.

SO ORDERED.
